

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Safety & Health - Natacha Ricks

The application process is still open for NAWIC's Safety Excellence Awards. They will be given to the top three companies at the Chapter level, the Regional level, and the National level. Click here for the application. All applications must be sent to Natacha no later than February 1.

Block Kids - Marla DiSalvo

We are looking for volunteers to help set up and break down the Block Kids event. We will meet at 3:30 p.m. on Friday, February 3 to set up and volunteers are also welcome between 7:30 a.m.-noon on Saturday, February 4 for the event. Please let Marla know if you can volunteer.

CHAPTER #96 NEWS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

January Meeting Recap - Dinner & Presentation

On January 10, chapter members and guests gathered for our monthly dinner meeting and presentation. Our guest speaker, Kevin Fasic, Esquire, from law firm Cooch & Taylor, presented a variety of Delaware employment law topics that impact women. We discussed topics such as pregnancy discrimination, reproductive health decisions, equal pay, sexual assault, domestic violence, and stalking.

Next Board Meeting

Tuesday, February 7
5 p.m.
TBD

Next Member Event

What: Block Kids
When: Saturday, February 4, 9 a.m.-noon
Where: Hodgson Vo-Tech High School
Cost: FREE

Tiffany Brownie of Bancroft Construction Company was recently promoted to Project Manager.

Members at guests at our January 10 dinner meeting.

LOCAL & INDUSTRY NEWS

Energy-Efficiency One of the Largest Job Sectors and Growing Electrical Contractor Magazine

When We Tear One Woman Down, We Tear All Women Down Huffington Post

CHEERS

- Mary Hobart-Barnhart of Construction Bookkeeping Services is celebrating 7 years as a NAWIC member this month.
- Member Tiffany Brownie of Bancroft Construction Company was recently promoted to Project Manager. She joined Bancroft in August 2013 as Assistant Project Manager.

NAWIC Chapter #96 | mail@nawicde.org | 302-453-4000 | nawicde.org

See what's happening on Facebook:

